Class of 1953: January 13 for March 5, 2014

The Yale game party in Fine Tower, organized by VP Dave Brown, was a great success. On hand were Jean and Dave Brown, Carol and George Carleu, Eleanor and Jay Cooper, Louise and Fred Crispin, Bob Davis and Bob Jr., Janet and Cowles Herr, Ned Jannotta and granddaughter Alex, Jack Middleton and brother Jenks '48, newly-weds Eleanor and Howie Minners, Alissa and Bill Sutphin, and Sue and Dave West plus assorted guests and the odd Yalie.

65% of our classmates contributed to AG in honor of our 60th, but that was not enough for Ools Lindholm. He attracted gifts to 1953's AG campaign from graduates of Cornell, Harvard and Yale! (Perhaps they were not "gifts" but football gambling debts) Visit the Class Website to see how Ools describes these gifts. Great humor. Classic Lindholm!

Glenn Anderson from Shaker Heights had a good chat with Bob Kenagy and noted that he had joined the Class ranks of great grandfathers back in 2011. His bio in Matt Bender's 60th Reunion book summarizes a very active life.

Cal Hooker (pictured) did complete hiking the 790 k Camino Frances (a.k.a Camino de Santiago), carrying his pack and wearing his '53 cap. An 83-year old Canadian topped him by one year but did not carry his pack.

Class of 1953 Memorial Scholarships have been awarded to two freshmen, one sophomore and one junior. Six additional students have benefited from scholarships endowed by Peter Nomikos, Gordon Beaham, and the late Bronson Ingram. Their names are posted on our class website, and details of the Class Scholarships plus any comments or news the students might send us will be added.
