Question: whose summertime itinerary might this be? New York, London, Prague, Karkovy, Nuremburg, Danube Canal, Regensburg, Passau, Linz, Melk, Wacau Valley. Vienna, Budapest, Copenhagen, back to London – and then a luxury trip home on the Queen Mary! What style! Oh for the good old days! Let's have more travel reports!

Clark Driemeyer reported that Dick Corkhill celebrated his 85th birthday in Avalon, NJ on August 8 at a gala gathering arranged by his wife, Kathy. Attending were 50+ friends from around the US, including Clark and Irma de la Fuente, Princeton roommate Jack Pierson, with wife Susan, and Maggie Tinsman, widow of Hovey. Dick remains an active hiker and sailor.

Matt Bender spotted this photo in the Albany Times Union of Francesco Galesi. His nationwide real estate firm is spearheading the redevelopment of downtown Schenectady. Over the years his development improvements have involved many states and earned him the Presidential "Award of Achievement". Yogi particularly enjoys work with his oil and gas company in western states and with Green Earth Technologies that produces environmentally friendly products for the oil and gas industry.

Answer: Karen and Ools Lindholm. We can picture Ools assembling all Tigers on the Queen's main deck and doing a Princeton Locomotive.

We have learned of the loss of several classmates: David St. Pierre DuBose, Jr. on April 19, 2014; Royce H. Vaughn on June 17, William W. Webster on June 30, James G. Metcalf, Jr. on July 21, and Bradley M. Glass on August 6. Debbie Ross Jannotta, wife of our president Ned, and sister of Peter Ross (Dec.), and Mary Louise Connolly (Terry's widow) have died – May 18 and July 20.
