

John C. Stone II '53
80 Lyme Road, Apt. 266
Hanover, NH 03755
603 643 2939
jcstone53@yahoo.com
www.princeton53.org

January 11 for March 1, 2017

We noted previously Len Milberg's exhibit at the New York Historical Society. It received splendid reviews. Paul Hertelendy found it in the San Francisco Chronicle. It was featured in the Arts section of the January 4 NYT. I will scan it for our Website. Hertelendy has been the Poet Laureate of the Smithsonian Institution National Board for 19 years and visits DC each year to deliver his poem. Paul – a civil engineering grad – has been our unofficial class poet. He claims that with years of writing poetry plus 99¢ you can buy a cup of coffee. He is also one of the few of us (like Clark Driemeyer) who pays additional class dues in honor of specific deceased classmates.

If Hertelendy is our poet, one of our philosophers is consistent dues-payer Donn Tragnitz of Laguna Beach who disdains computers but was horrified when his abacus was hacked.

Another NYT item for the website is the feature article on Dec. 25 about Steve Kerr of the Golden State Warriors and especially his father Malcolm, our classmate who was assassinated by Hezbollah in Beirut in 1984 when he was president of the American University in Beirut.

Harry Kohn is well into his 12th year of substitute teaching in the middle schools of Anne Arundel Country, MD. He credits his superior Princeton liberal arts education.

Chris Webber has been our excellent memorialist for months now, but there is always a delay between the writing and the publication. When I receive obituaries from other sources, henceforth I will post them on a new page on our website. First will be the NYC obit of John Spencer, who died on December 30. Don Dwight, Jim Neff and Skip Madden alerted me to Bones' passing. Our Class Agent Jim Donnell wrote that his wife Sally died on July 20 of acute leukemia. I hope that more classmates will pay visits to the website. I am considering a writers & poets page. Contributions anyone?