When I was your scribe in the seventies, Judge Jon O. Newman frequently was celebrated for his brilliance as a federal judge. Now four decades later Jon has been honored with the Devitt Award, America's longest running and highest judicial honor. In presenting the award to Jon at the Supreme Court, Justice Elena Kagan noted that Jon was a brilliant jurist and thoughtful scholar. To provide Jon the credit he is due, please read more on our website about this exciting award.

What do the following classmates have in common? Bender, Benoliel, Black, Dave Brown, Paul Brown, Conner, Conover, Crispin, Decker, Donnell, Driemeyer, Dwight, Frorer, Gray, Hiser, Barbara Hauptfuhrer, Jannotta, Kenagy, Kirk, Lindholm, Macfarlane, Madden, Matthews, Maxwell, Roberts, Silver, Slaughter, Stone, Sutphin, Waterbury, and Alex Williams. Answer: All serve on the "Greater 1953 65th Reunion Committee", and there will be more. Macfarlane has stepped down as chairman, with Lindholm and Matthews assuming that responsibility. Many thanks to all of you. It's a lot of work. The event is only fourteen months away! May 29, 2018. It will begin with our traditional '53 evening at Bedens Brook. We hope to see you there!

The Lacrosse season is underway and many will remember strong Princeton teams in our era. Kenagy spoke recently with David, son of Bo Willis (dec), who advised us of the death of Bo's widow. David described a website film of the 1951 Championship Lacrosse game between Princeton and Johns Hopkins. I will post the link to the site on our website. Surviving teammates Ashurkoff, Emery, Ed Forsythe, Hoblitzell, and Tait might be interested.

Peachy and Don Kohler escape Louisville in the winter in favor of Delray Beach. Don now regularly shoots his age in golf (on a par three course!). His son shoots valid 67s on a normal course. The Kohlers regularly see Barbara and Jim Stenson.

We learned that Robert D. C. Long of Hilton Head, SC died last October 30.
