2017-8 – July 27 for Sept 13, 2017

When speaking to alumni, the late Rev. Fred Fox '39, Recording Secretary of the University, would say “Why not orange?”. The other evening when mowing fields, I glanced at my watch and what did it say? 19:53!. So why not 1953, as we begin our 65th year as alumni?

Matt Bender is again editing the yearbook for our 65th. Reunion. This will be the last one published. By now, or in a few days you should receive a questionnaire in the mail. Matt encourages ALL of us to respond and complete the biographical questionnaire. Your response will make our final yearbook what it should be!

Congratulations to Sarah Perkins, granddaughter of Jack Roblin, who joins the Class of 2021 this month.

You may have noticed that letters from Charles Graves from Geneva and Paul Hertelendy from San Francisco were published in the July 12 PAW. Both reminisced about our undergraduate experience. Hertelendy is Class Poet for our 65th Reunion year.

Thanks to many classmates and associates who this past year added another $8,325 to the 1953 Memorial Scholarship.

John Silver's first Shakespeare book is available on Amazon. “From Fierce to Faith: Healing and renewal in Shakespeare's Women”.

Alas, we have lost classmates: James Burst on March 30, and Calvin Perrine on June 28. Liz Ellwood advised us of the passing of their son Alexander on July 28.

Pictured are a few of our classmates practicing for our 65th at Reunions in June: Lindholm, Black, Sutphin, Decker and Kirk. They're all helping organize our 65th.
