

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE

FEBRUARY 21, 2015

3:00 P.M.

THE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL
PRINCETON

The first Service of Remembrance was held in 1919.

The Princeton University Chapel is the religious and ceremonial center for the University. Completed in 1928, it is the third largest university chapel in the world. It is the home of regular religious services for many of the University's faith groups, including the 268-year-old ecumenical Christian worshiping community that meets every Sunday at 11:00 a.m. - the very community that founded Princeton in 1746. A place of grace and of peace, the Chapel is open to all people. There is seating for approximately 1300 people, including 90 in the balcony.

The Memorial Procession

The Procession is composed of representatives from every undergraduate and alumni class, the Graduate School, and the Princeton faculty and staff, followed by members of the Service of Remembrance Committee. Each person wears a white carnation that is placed inside the Memorial Wreath, remembering all of those who have died during 2014 and in all past years.

Processional Kites

The kites are part of many University events in the Chapel including Opening Exercises and Baccalaureate. The fabric for the kites was painted by Juanita Kauffman, who also painted the six hanging banners. The kites were constructed by Martin Blais, a kitemaker in Tennessee.

The red kite represents fire and is carried by Jessica L. Wilson, Class of 2015.

The white kite represents air and is carried by Misha Semenov, Class of 2015.

The green kite represents earth and is carried by Katherine A. Wadman, Class of 2016.

The blue kite represents water and is carried by Abigail M. Kelly, Class of 2015.

This Service of Remembrance is made possible in part by generous support from the bequest of Lois Dale Stewart Eddy hc41 in memory of Ernest T. Stewart, Jr. '41.

HYMN O God, Our Help in Ages Past

St. Anne

I
O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home!

II
Under the shadow of your throne
Your saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is your arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

III
Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received its frame,
From everlasting you are God,
To endless years the same.

IV
A thousand ages, in your sight,
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.

V
Time, like an ever rolling stream,
Soon bears us all away;
We fly forgotten, as a dream
Fades at the opening day.

VI
O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Still be our God while troubles last,
And our eternal home!

OPENING SENTENCES

The Reverend Doctor Alison L. Boden

Leader: God is our refuge and strength,
People: A very present help in trouble.
Leader: God, you have been our refuge
People: From one generation to another.
Leader: Let us pray.

A PRAYER (Leader and People)

O God our Creator, the source of life, from whom we come and to whom all life leads, we praise you for the gift of life, for its joys and wonders, its friendship, family and community. We thank you for the ties that bind us so closely to one another. We ask for the faith to entrust to the power of your love those who have died. We thank you for their accomplishments, their happiness, and the times of grace they knew with us. Gather them with those who have gone before in the comfort of a saving hope and at perfect peace with all the world.

Leader: Holy God, Holy and Mighty, Holy Immortal One, have mercy upon them and upon all whom you have made.
People: May light perpetual shine upon them. Amen.

ANTHEM Wie lieblich sind deine Wohnungen, Herr Zebaoth
From Ein Deutsches Requiem

Johannes Brahms
(1833-1897)

How lovely is your dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts!
For my soul longs, indeed it faints for the courts of the Lord:
My soul and body sing for joy to the living God.
O blessed are they that dwell within your house;
they praise your name evermore!

PSALM 139:1–11

Samisha Bansal

Leader:

Lord, you have searched me out and known me;

People: you know my sitting down and my rising up;
you discern my thoughts from afar.

Leader: You trace my journeys and my resting places

People: and are acquainted with all my ways.

Leader: Indeed, there is not a word on my lips,

People: but you, O Lord, know it altogether.

Leader: You press upon me behind and before

People: and lay your hand upon me.

Leader: Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;

People: it is so high that I cannot attain to it.

Leader: Where can I go then from your spirit?

People: Where can I flee from your presence?

Leader: If I climb up to heaven, you are there;

People: if I make the grave my bed, you are there also.

Leader: If I take the wings of the morning,

People: and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,

Leader: Even there your hand will lead me

People: and your right hand hold me fast.

Leader: If I say, "Surely the darkness will cover me,

People: and the light around me turn to night,"

Leader: Darkness is not dark to you; the night is as bright as the day;

People: darkness and light to you are both alike.

HYMN Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

St. Denio

I
Immortal invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, your great name we praise.

III
Your life is life-giving—to both great and small;
In all life you're living, the true life of all;
We blossom and flourish as leaves and as flowers,
Then wither and perish—but naught dims your powers.

II
Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light,
Not wanting, not wasting, but ruling in might;
Your justice like mountains high soaring above,
Your clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

IV
So perfect your glory, so brilliant your light,
Your angels adore you, all veiling their sight;
All praise we now render as your angels do;
In awe at the splendor of light hiding you.

A PRAYER FOR PRINCETON

Reverend Deborah K. Blanks

Leader and People:

O Eternal God, the source of life and light for all peoples, we pray you would endow this University with your grace and wisdom:
Give inspiration and understanding to those who teach and to those who learn.
Grant vision to her trustees and administrators.
To all who work here and to all who bear her name give your guiding Spirit of sacrificial courage and loving service. Amen.

I
For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who to the world their steadfast faith confessed,
Your name, O Lord God, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

III
Ringed by this cloud of witnesses divine,
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet in your love our faithful lives entwine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

II
You were their rock, their refuge, and their might:
You, Lord, the hope that put their fears to flight;
'mid gloom and doubt, you were their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

IV
And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
Then hearts are brave again, and faith grows strong.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

THE MEMORIAL PROCESSION

Aria from Concerto Grosso No. 12
George Frideric Handel
(1685-1759)

When the procession reaches the Chancel, the representatives will each contribute to the Memorial Wreath one flower in memory of their classmates and colleagues. As soon as the Memorial Wreath is complete, the President of the University, Christopher L. Eisgruber, will pronounce the following dedication:

By the dedication of this wreath, we, the living members of the Princeton family, join together to honor those of our company who are now numbered with the great communion of the eternal. May this wreath be the symbol of our continuing unity so that we may uphold their allegiance to the mission of this University, their dedication to the service of all people, and their devotion to the ideals of their faith.

OLD NASSAU

H. P. Peck, Class of 1862
Professor Karl A. Langlotz

Organ Solo, then the people will sing

Tune ev'ry heart and ev'ry voice, Bid ev'ry care withdraw;
Let all with one accord rejoice, In praise of Old Nassau.
In praise of Old Nassau we sing, Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!
Our hearts will give, while we shall live, Three cheers for Old Nassau!

And when these walls in dust are laid, With reverence and awe,
Another throng shall breathe our song, In praise of Old Nassau.
In praise of Old Nassau we sing, Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!
Our hearts will give, while we shall live, Three cheers for Old Nassau!

BENEDICTION

Reverend Deborah K. Blanks

HYMN Joyful, Joyful, We Adore You

Hymn to Joy

Music by Ludwig von Beethoven
(1770-1827)

Words by Reverend Henry van Dyke
Class of 1873 and Princeton University Professor of English
(1852-1933)

I

Joyful, joyful, we adore you, God of glory, God of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before you, opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness, drive the storms of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day.

II

All your works with joy surround you, earth and heaven reflect your rays,
Stars and angels sing around you, center of unbroken praise,
Field and forest, vale and mountain, flowery meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, teach us what our praise should be.

III

You are giving and forgiving, ever blessing, ever blessed,
Well-spring of the joy of living, ocean depth of happy rest!
Loving Spirit, Father, Mother, all who love belong to you;
Teach us how to love each other, by that love our joy renew.

IV

Mortals, join the mighty chorus which the morning stars began;
Boundless love is reigning o'er us, reconciling race and clan.
Ever singing, move we forward, faithful in the midst of strife,
Joyful music leads us onward in the triumph song of life.

RECESSIONAL

Gravement from Pièce d'Orgue, BWV 572
