

LIND

Thomas Russell, 84, of Columbia, SC, passed away on Sunday, January 29, 2017.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, February 4, 2017 at 10:00 at Saint John Neumann Catholic Church. Born in Bronx, New York he was a son of the late Sebastian Henry and Patricia Mary Lind. He was a graduate of Blessed Sacrament High School and received his Bachelor's Degree in Chemical Engineering from Princeton University. He worked as a corporate executive for American Cyanamid and Angelini Pharmaceuticals.

He was a loving father and grandfather and enjoyed golf. He was a member of Saint John Neumann Catholic Church.

He is survived by son John Henry Lind (Susan) of York, PA; daughter, Andree Avagliano of Myrtle Beach; nine grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchild-ren; brother, Frederick Lind of Jacksonville, Fla and sister, Patricia Zoller (John) of Austin, TX.

He was predeceased by sons; Thomas Russell Lind, Jr. and James "Jimmy" Michael Lind.

Memorials may be made to Saint John Neumann Catholic Church, 100 Polo Road, Columbia, SC 29223. Please sign the online guest book at dunbarfunerals.com.

Published in The Record on Feb. 2, 2017

Thomas Russell Lind died on January 29, 2017, in Columbia, South Carolina. Tom came to Princeton from Blessed Sacrament High School in New York City. He majored in Chemical Engineering, joined Elm Club, served on the Junior and Senior Class Councils, and participated in I.A.A. football and basketball. After graduation he joined American Cyanamid and stayed with them for thirty-seven years living in a number of places on the east coast and enjoying a career that involved him in management, politics, and finance and the chemical plastics, aerospace, and medical industries. He spent a final seven years with Angelini Pharmaceuticals before retiring to a life of golf and furniture building in South Carolina. He is survived by a son and a daughter, nine grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren.

Christopher L. Webber